Children's Chorus of Greater Dallas
Washington D.C. Tour
June 23-27, 2010

Participation Agreement

As a member of the Children's Chorus of Greater Dallas, I contract and agree as follows:

1. I will be on time and prepared for all rehearsals and performances.
2. I will come prepared for rehearsals:
 - by bringing my music and pencil
 - by learning the assignments
 - by giving respectful attention to the director
3. I will acquire and wear the proper uniform and appropriate attire while on tour.
4. My parents and I have read the CCGD Handbook, and I will abide by the performance rules of dress and appearance.
5. I will conduct myself with dignity and diligence to tasks, and I will be a good team member.
6. I will cheerfully participate in the shared assignments for helping our tour to run smoothly.
7. I will be courteous to waiters, waitresses, tour guides, bus drivers, and other service personnel.
8. I will be courteous, respectful, and attentive to all adults in charge.
9. I understand that "lights out" is for my health and well-being and is not negotiable.
10. I will safeguard my health by making appropriate food choices, getting enough sleep, and drinking plenty of water.
11. I will communicate any special medical needs or concerns to an adult in charge.
12. I will not rough-house in the hotel/dorm room (including, but not limited to, throwing anything out of or climbing out of windows, burning anything with matches or otherwise).
13. I will keep my things neatly together and be ready to help clean up.
14. I understand that upon the first violation of these rules, my parents will be called, and that subsequent violations may result in my leaving the tour and returning home at my parents' expense. This will be at the discretion of the director(s) and chaperone(s).
