HEMS:

New dresses arrive unhemmed, so allow for time to hem it yourself, or have it done professionally.

- Dresses are to be hemmed one inch from the floor, in ballet shoes – see picture below
- Leave some hem turned under for letting out, but turn under no more than three inches. Be sure your tailor knows to leave hem for letting out.
- Remember that girls grow! A July hem may not work for a September performance. Saving as much hem as possible (up to three inches) extends the life of the dress for your singer.
- CCGD requires concert dresses to be worn very loosely for the comfort of the singer and to allow for growth through the year. The dresses run small, and many girls wear a size larger than their street clothes.

All dresses must be hemmed 1" from floor.

Please dry clean or wash and press the outfit before each major performance. If singing several times in a short period of time, please make sure to hang up the dress and press, if needed.

If you have used girls' concert dresses you'd like to sell or donate:

- 1 Please bring or send it to CCGD, 325 N. Saint Paul St., Suite 2020, Dallas TX 75201 sometime before July 14th. Garments must have been cleaned and be on hangers.
- 2 Include a self-addressed envelope to receive payment by mail, or
- 3 CCGD gratefully accepts donations of used concert attire!

Concert Attire for Boys:

Tuxedo shirt (wing-tip collar with white buttons, no black studs), tuxedo pants

(The hem of the pants should be just resting on the top of the shoe with a small break in the front and falling just above the heel in the back.)

Black bow tie and black cummerbund

Black dress socks – no short athletic socks

Black dress shoes – NO athletic shoes and no cowboy boots

NO jewelry or makeup is to be worn, and no perfume.

Hair must be clean and secured away from the face, using only black or discreet clips, if necessary.

Hair longer than shoulder length must be secured in a pony tail.

We suggest that boys not wear an undershirt because it is too hot. However, this is a personal choice.

Boys' concert attire measurements are complicated, and we've found that it works best for boys to go directly to a local tuxedo retailer to be measured. If you go to an Al's Formal Wear, they have our information and you will receive a slight discount. Total cost is around $50-$60, and orders should be ready within three or four days.

Please dry clean or wash and press the outfit before each major performance

We do not accept used concert attire for boys. However, we would love to have used black bow ties and cummerbunds if you would like to donate them.
