ORGANIZATION

The Children's Chorus of Greater Dallas (CCGD) was founded in 1996. The mission of the Chorus is to provide children with the experience of artistic excellence and artistry through choral singing. The Children's Chorus creates a spirit of community, reflects the diversity of greater Dallas, and enriches audiences with the best in children's choral literature.

The Children's Chorus includes girls and boys with unchanged voices in the fourth through eighth grades. The Women's Youth Chorus is composed of young women in the ninth through twelfth grades. The Youth Chorus includes young men and women in the ninth through twelfth grades. Members are selected through an audition with the artistic staff. The qualifications are a good voice, a good sense of pitch and a commitment to regular attendance at rehearsals and performances.

CURRICULUM/PHILOSOPHY

Through the rehearsal and performance of distinctive choral literature, CCGD will give the children the vocal, musical and artistic skills necessary to express themselves in song.

Through skilled, beautiful singing, children will begin a journey of self-discovery as they learn the music, thought and feelings of cultures that span centuries and continents.

During the course of a year, choristers will have the opportunity to learn the music of the major periods of Western Civilization – Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, Romantic and the 20th and 21st Centuries. Children will explore the folk-based art music of many cultures different from their own.

The children will receive instruction in how musical elements work together. Those elements are melody, rhythm, harmony, timbre, dynamics, form, style, history and performance practice. These musical concepts are taught through the singing, listening, analysis and evaluation of the repertoire.

The children will learn how to use their personal instrument, their bodies and voices, in an expressive, artistic way. In order to sing the varied repertoire, they will be given instruction in classical vocal techniques. In each rehearsal, correct singing posture, vowel shape, breath support, and tone placement will be taught and developed.

Informed performances can transform young singers. Children can experience music through singing with their whole beings. Their relationships to the production of sound into art, of bodies into instruments, transcend the actual notes and words on the page. In singing, they touch the music and the music touches them, for the pure joy of the experience. This experience will enrich all those involved in the process, including the avid concertgoer, the parent and, of course, the child.

We look forward to guiding your child in this adventure.

Please do not arrive more than 15 minutes early unless you plan to stay with your child and please be prompt picking up your child.

At First Presbyterian Church (FPC):

Prelude and Apprentice: Parents park for free in the First Presbyterian Church parking garage. The entrance is accessed from Young Street at Park Avenue. Place the yellow parking pass on your car dashboard and park on levels 4-6. Prelude: Take the elevator to the first level and follow the signs. Apprentice: take the elevator to the basement level. DO NOT PARK in the outside flat lot in front of the circular drive or on levels 1-3 in the garage.

Concert I: Free parking is available during Monday night rehearsals in the Platinum Parking Flat Lot #190 at the corner of Young & St. Paul Streets if the blue parking pass is placed on the car dashboard. There will be a security guard on duty this year. For Saturday rehearsals, parents park for free in the First Presbyterian Church parking garage. Place the yellow parking pass on your car dashboard and park on levels 4-6. DO NOT PARK in the outside flat lot in front of the circular drive or on levels 1-3 of the garage on either Monday evenings or Saturdays.

The parking rules will be explained further at Parent Orientation. We are guests in the church so please respect the church space at all times. Prelude parents: If you are staying during rehearsal, you may wait in the lobby area on the first floor or on the basement level. Unfortunately, due to the size of the room, Prelude parents will not be able to wait in the rehearsal room. Apprentice & Con I parents: If you are staying during rehearsal, you may wait downstairs either in the rehearsal room or the Blakley lobby. Please supervise any children who are with you at all times and do not allow them to wander in other spaces.

At First United Methodist Church (FUMC): Free parking is available during rehearsals in the Ross Tower Garage on the southwest corner of Ross and St. Paul if the bright orange parking pass is placed on the car dashboard. Please do not park in the First United Methodist Church parking lot. Use the San Jacinto Street entrance to the building. Please respect the church space at all times. Parents and siblings who choose to wait at FUMC during the rehearsal are welcome to observe the rehearsal or wait in the Atrium but please do not wander around in other spaces or sit on the floor in the Art Gallery.

Choristers are to arrive at rehearsal in comfortable, appropriate attire ready to sing. Prior to rehearsal, choristers should have had a light snack or meal. Upon arrival, they are to use the restroom, get water, and throw away any gum or candy. There is no food or drink allowed in any rehearsal room. Each chorister will pick up his/her folder and a pencil, and find his/her assigned seat. Choristers then wait quietly for the rehearsal to begin. They are expected to remain for the entire rehearsal. If a chorister has a personal need, he/she should quietly approach a rehearsal monitor or assistant conductor.

Children are NOT permitted to walk between FPC and FUMC without adult supervision, and CCGD will not be held legally responsible for any who do.

Please review this section with your child.

SUPERVISION OF CHORISTERS

The children come under CCGD supervision only when they enter the rehearsal room. We will do everything we can to make drop off and pick up as smooth as possible, but there is no substitute for parents ensuring that children arrive at the rehearsal room safely and on time.

Whenever and wherever CCGD gathers, the choristers are under the supervision of the CCGD Staff, assisted by parents who volunteer as chaperones. In as much as the Chorus rehearses and performs in public places, the Chorus instructs the choristers in the concept of “director dependence”. The children are expected to respond appropriately and immediately to all direction from the CCGD Staff, whether given in person or through the chaperones who are acting under the direction of the CCGD Staff. In addition to the Artistic Staff, the Chorus is committed to providing the appropriate number of chaperones at each rehearsal and performance. While director dependence is most often an artistic issue, it can at times be a safety issue. Parents are expected to discuss and reinforce the concept of director dependence with their child. Children in noncompliance will be asked to leave the Chorus.

PERFORMANCE AND REHEARSAL ATTENDANCE POLICY

PERFORMANCE ATTENDANCE

Performance attendance is different from rehearsal attendance. Missing a performance may be grounds for dismissal. Requests to miss a performance must be submitted to Ms. Nott four weeks in advance.

All performances listed on the CCGD calendar handed out in August are mandatory. In August, if you find you have a conflict with a performance, call the Artistic Director, Ms. Nott at 214-965-0491 IMMEDIATELY.

PLEASE DO NOT ACCEPT A ROLE IN ANY MUSICAL OR DRAMATIC PRODUCTION THAT WILL CONFLICT WITH A CCGD PERFORMANCE!

REHEARSAL ATTENDANCE

Singers must attend ALL rehearsals in order to fully learn the music being taught. However, we understand that unavoidable circumstances do arise. There are two kinds of absences: Regular and Music. We ask that you notify Susan in the chorus office, preferably by email (susan@thechildrenschorus.org), if your child is going to be absent for any reason.

Regular Absences

A singer can be absent 3 times each semester for illness, too much homework, car trouble, spring break, bad traffic, bad weather, school testing, vacation, “forgot”, Fair Day, you name it. These are called “regular” absences.

These “regular” absences are tracked as follows:

One (1) absence for missing a Monday night rehearsal

One and one half (1.5) absences for missing a Saturday rehearsal (applies to Concert I, Concert II and Apprentice)

Two (2) tardies count as one absence

Choristers are considered tardy if:

Arriving 10 minutes after the rehearsal start time; or

Leaving rehearsal more than 10 minutes early

Penalties for Excessive “Regular” Absences

After three “regular” absences, a letter will be sent from Ms. Nott, the Artistic Director. After the fourth “regular” absence, the chorister may be dismissed from the chorus. There are no refunds for tuition.

Music Absences

CCGD encourages all choristers to participate in their school music and religious choir programs. Absences for graded school music (school choir, school band or school orchestra) or religious choir are considered “Music” absences and will not count toward the three “regular” absences. However, you must let CCGD know at least four weeks in advance of a school music or religious choir absence.

Penalties for Excessive “Music” Absences

This is handled on a case-by-case basis. On occasion, there may come a point when your child simply is not in enough rehearsals to participate fully. The Artistic Director will call you and discuss dismissal. There are no refunds for tuition.

All Musical Theatre Productions (school, church, community, etc.)

If you choose or are required to participate in a musical theatre production (at your school, your church, in the community, etc.), this is not considered a “Music” absence and must be coordinated in advance with Ms. Nott, the Artistic Director:

1. Let the musical conductor know of your Monday night commitment with CCGD. This discussion should occur well in advance of the first musical rehearsal. Many musical directors accept a “conflict sheet” at the time of the musical audition for the student’s regularly scheduled activities. They will work with you!

2. Once you have discussed your CCGD commitment with the musical director, email Ms. Nott, the Artistic Director (cynthia@thechildrenschorus.org) to discuss a compromise, including in the email all dates you foresee being absent from CCGD rehearsal.

REMEMBER: Participation in any musical theatre production must be coordinated in advance with Ms. Nott.

There is room for compromise, but you must be present at CCGD rehearsals and performances in order to participate fully.

Final written instructions are provided at the last rehearsal prior to each performance in the form of 'HotSheets' which are printed on hot pink paper.
