WHY WE NEED YOUR HELP

This will be a year unlike any other for CCGD. We are proud to be a historically stable, fiscally responsible organization. For years, CCGD staff has worked diligently to raise much-needed funds from generous donors that allow the organization to keep tuition and ticket rates low and affordable, in addition to offering a robust tuition assistance program.

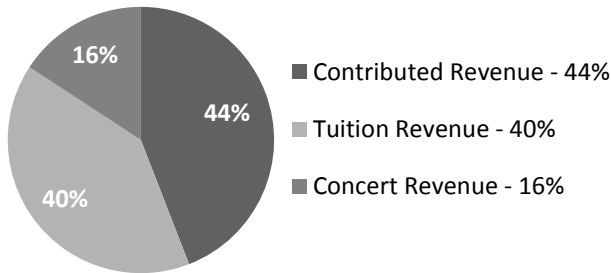

CCGD has a long-held internal policy of keeping financial burdens off of its singers and their families. Despite the likelihood of facing a budget deficit, CCGD's Board of Directors chose to lower tuition rates for the fall semester to ensure everyone has access to much-needed musical enrichment. We need generous donors who are able to help us mitigate this lost revenue.

We are committed to continue providing our exceptionally creative and passionate singers with opportunities to do their best work and become their best selves. Now more than ever, opportunities to connect and learn are desperately needed. Please help CCGD continue to offer an excellent, innovative choral music experience to children of all backgrounds.

By The Numbers

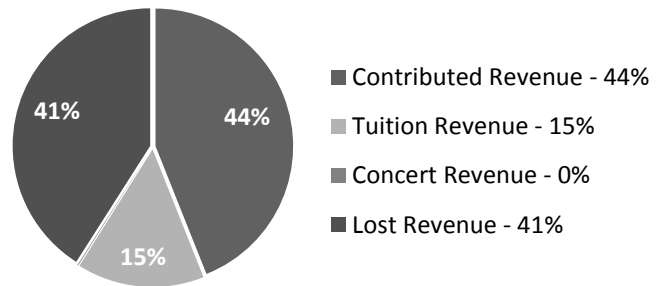

Typical CCGD Revenue

Income as a % of Expenses Covered

2020-21 CCGD Revenue

Income as a % of Expenses Covered

In a typical year, CCGD's sources of revenue—donations, tuition, and concert tickets—more than cover its expenses for a single season. However, in the 2020-21 budget, the 41% decrease in tuition and concert revenue causes an increased reliance on donations to retain financial stability.
